

It's all over

Lyrics: Anders Burman(Dj Zero)

Verse

Because of you
I have no self esteem
You had your chance
And took me in your open arms
But now I know
I'm not the person in your life
I'm just a piece
The piece you threw away one day

Refr.

You'll see
Things ain't what they used to be
There's no longer you and me
We've found our separate ways
And that's something...
You can't change
No matter what you say to me
My life is fine and I'm free
Just take your lies and go away
(It's all over)

Verse

Because of you
I've realized one thing
This is my chance
To tell the world just who you are
And I'm sure
That they will understand my acts
I'm just a piece
The piece you threw away one day
